Changes

Changes Without

83-84 brought a lot of changes to Walden — and to each of us. Some changes helped things — some helped us to learn lessons. But the school has changed because each of us has changed. And I hope it continues. Because it is change that allows us to be alive.

Thanks to each of you for making this a special year in Walden's history. The students who made up the school and the teachers who helped us all to learn. And a special word to Linda, Nancy Joe, Trish, Bart, Mike, and all of you who worked so hard to record this year. Thank you.

Changes Within

And Individually

CHANGES

Changes in time
Changes in the season
Changes of mind
Could age be the reason?

Twelve long years
Of living and learning
So many fears
Our heads keep turning.

People come and people go Throughout our younger years
Learning things we didn't know Intimidation from our peers.

Different faces
Different names
Same ole places
Same ole games.

We go through the motions
We rewrite the lines
We change our emotions
To go with the times.

But as time goes by
And lives rearrange
What we remember
Will never change.

Formulas and fractions, dates, names, people, and places,
words and more words.
Fragments stored in my mind like unread books on a closet shelf.
Someday,
you never know
they might come in handy.
One day I will open the door, and they will tumble to the floor.
I will find they fit together perfectly.

His caring, his faith, and his

Marriage Takes Three

I once thought marriage took just two to make a go, but now I am convinced it takes the Lord, also.
Not one marriage fails where Christ is asked to enter where lovers come together with Jesus as the center.
Marriage seldom thrives and homes are incomplete
'til He is welcome there to help avoid defeat.
In homes where Christ is first it's obvious to see those unions really work for marriage still take three

THE LADY OF THE LAKES

What makes the heart beat faster? It's a question that has been asked for centuries. The answer is simple: love. Love is the most powerful force in the universe. It is the force that makes us feel alive, that makes us feel like we are part of something greater than ourselves. Love is the force that makes us want to be better, that makes us want to live our lives to the fullest. Love is the force that makes us feel like we are not alone, that makes us feel like we are part of a family, a community, a world. Love is the force that makes us feel like we are truly alive.

The Tree in Twilight

The tree at the end of the corner is bound by roots and its desire to reach the stars.
And in a way,
Isn't the tree like you and me?
For in our fight
for height and strength,
Don't we sometimes overshadow

Don't people and trees end up in the same tomb?
The tree is fashioned into man's coffin,
and together,
they return to the earth.

Loneliness is grey.
It sounds like a person running

Hate is a deep, dark brown.
It sounds like two cats fighting

It smells like stale air

It tastes like sour wine.
Hate is a burning sensation.

My Life

What is life? What is time?
I just keep moving on.
I wake up each morning,
and then the day is gone.
I have my friends and I know they're always there.
So tell me why I ask myself just how many really care?
Am I the only one?
I think now I'm fourteen.
But what have I done?
Has my life had meaning?
Will I ever know?
It seems I'm lost within myself.
Sometimes I feel so low.

The world is not a reality,
It's a game with faces and days.
No one knows the reason,
but everybody plays.
What is trust?
What is love?
Two things we never found.
Could I be the only one?
Are those things still around?
Is this my life?
Is this my world?
I'm tied up in such a mess, trying and searching everywhere.
For one thing: happiness.

Leader of a young revolution Unkilled, but instinctive dominated by confusion.
Anger is lurking in the corners preparing its attack
As anger grows more powerful

Anger takes over Hostility towards everyone
Life becomes miserable with each day worse than the one before until you realize you must gain control again
When this happens
Anger fades away realizing it has lost the war

There is nothing that equals the patience of a cat framed in the window like carved ivory unblinking she waits for my return Fickle
 and merely human:
 I am often late.
 But she will be there her eyes focused serenely on her own cat world waiting as the afternoon
 fades into twilight Constant. Not a human trait. possesses an undeniable power and her presence as compelling as a beacon in the window draws me home.
